G. DENOMINATIONAL PUBLICATIONS

1. Dr Beasley-Murray served as Chairman for the Advisory Committee for Church Relations which produced the Report Baptists and Unity (Baptist Union: London, 1965), 60pp.
2. Regular contributions to Spurgeon's College Record, especially when Tutor (1950-56) and Principal (1958-73). Of special interest is 'World Journey' in issue 51 (December 1970), pp.4-11, detailing visits to Canada, Tokyo and Russia.
3. Frequent contributions to the Baptist Times: two are of special interest. 'Let's stop apologising for the Church', 2 May 1968, pp.8-9, in the wake of the assassination of Dr Martin Luther King. Dr Beasley-Murray, as President of the Baptist Union, argued strongly for social activity on the part of Christians. 'The Person of Christ: The New Testament Witness to Christ', 29 July 1971, p.7, appeared in the midst of the christological discussions.
