PALESTINE EXPLORATION FUND.

NOTES AND NEWS.

Died

ON THE 11TH OCTOBER, 1896,

HIS GRACE THE ARCHBISHOP OF CANTERBURY
(DR. BENSON),

President of the Society.

THE Committee received with great regret intelligence of the sudden death of their valued President, Archbishop Benson. His Grace had always been most courteous and kind, and taken a deep interest in the progress of the work of the Fund. They are happy to announce that the new Archbishop of Canterbury, Dr. Temple, has consented to become the President.

The Committee again desire most earnestly to draw attention to the financial position of the Fund. In response to their appeal made at and after the Annual Meeting, 35 subscribers of half-a-guinea have increased their subscriptions to one guinea, four subscribers of one guinea have raised their subscriptions to two guineas, and 58 special donations have been received, amounting together to £150 9s. The outstanding balance against the Fund has been reduced to £790.

The importance of the excavations now in progress, to all who take an intelligent interest in ancient Jerusalem, cannot be exaggerated. The success that has hitherto attended the devoted labours of Dr. Bliss and Mr. Dickie is incontestable. They are now at work in the Tyropœon Valley. For the Committee to be compelled for financial reasons to suspend or delay the completion of these excavations would be most lamentable from every point of view.

The Committee would therefore, in order to avert such a catastrophe, respectfully ask the majority of subscribers to the Palestine Exploration Fund to consider whether they will not endeavour to increase their subscriptions, at all events while these important excavations are in hand.

But the great need of the Fund is new annual subscribers, and if everyone interested in the exploration of the Holy Land could succeed in inducing one friend to become a subscriber, the financial difficulties of the Fund would be at an end.

Sir Charles Wilson writes:—"The principal feature in this year's excavations has been the determination of the dimensions of the true Pool of Siloam, and the discovery of the church built, or perhaps only rebuilt, by the Empress Eudocia, on its north side. Here we have, without doubt, the pool mentioned in the Bible, and it is to be hoped that the site may be purchased and the whole pool thoroughly cleared out and restored to its original condition as far as this may be possible.

"Next in interest is the paved street with steps, which is apparently that by which Antoninus descended to Siloam. This street points towards the 'Double Gate,' and by following it up that all-important landmark, the steps that go up to the City of David, may be discovered, and a clue obtained to the position of David's sepulchre.

"Of great interest also are the dam of the lower Pool of Siloam, the rock scarp that possibly marks the line of the old wall, and the researches connected with the wall on the western hill.

"The Fund is, I think, to be congratulated on the result of this season's work, and the promise it affords of a rich harvest of discovery during the present year. It is clear that we have arrived at one of the most important sites for excavation, and may possibly, before the year is ended, discover a clue to the ancient topography of the city. The rubbish is very deep, and excavation difficult. This means additional expense, which I earnestly trust may be met by increased subscriptions before the spring work commences."

Under date December 16th, 1896, Mr. H. A. Harper writes as follows:—

Last month, while in Jerusalem, I was so fortunate as to see a good deal of Dr. Bliss and also of Mr. Dickie. The Committee of the Palestine Fund have good reason to congratulate themselves on securing the services of such able explorers.

I had the honour of presiding at a lecture Dr. Bliss gave to a large party of tourists, and it was impossible not to express a hope that such a lecture would be given in London.

In company with Dr. Bliss I visited the scene of the excavations, and had the benefit of his explanations. Not wishing to anticipate his report to the Committee, I confine myself simply to calling attention to what I think are distinct Biblical gains in the last season's work.

Jerusalem is known to me fairly well, as I have drawn and painted the city from almost every point of view, but I was not prepared to find that in the old days it had extended so much further on the south-eastern side than is generally supposed, and yet, standing on the ground, Dr. Bliss pointed out the line of his excavations, some of the most interesting of which had already been filled in, for the rains were expected, and he had altogether this year opened quite a mile of tunnels.

I saw portions of walls, Jewish and Roman, proving that on this south-eastern side the city had extended quite down into the valley, touching the Valley of Hinnom on one side and the King's Gardens on the other, and it seemed most probable that this wall, or two walls, had included and enclosed the Pool of Siloam.

If we turn to the book of Nehemiah, chapter ii, verses 12 and 13, we see how the Prophet "went out by night by the gate of the valley." It seems to me that Dr. Bliss has found that gate.

Chapter vii, verse 4, says:—"Now the city was large and great." Anyone consulting a map in the light of Dr. Bliss's discoveries will, I think, admit that the city was indeed "large," and this increased size will also explain how it was possible for so many people to inhabit Jerusalem as spoken of by later writers.

In chapter iii, verse 15, we read:—"And the wall of the Pool of Siloah by the King's Garden and unto the stairs that go down from the City of David"; and in chapter xii, verse 37:—"And at the fountain gate, which was over against them, they went up by the stairs of the City of David, at the going up of the wall, above the house of David, even unto the water gate eastwards" (see also chapter ix, verse 4). Dr. Bliss has found a grand flight of steps (Jewish) leading from the Pool of Siloam up to the city. He will doubtless describe them in full, but probably we have there the very "stairs" Nehemiah speaks of, and those by which people were accustomed to go down to the Pool of Siloam in the time of Our Lord.

To my mind any excavation which throws light on Bible statements is of the greatest value.

The Committee learned with much regret that Mr. Dickie had been laid up with a severe attack of fever and had to take a short voyage (to Alexandria) for his recovery, Dr. Lunn having kindly offered him a passage on board the "Midnight Sun." Mr. Dickie has returned to Jerusalem quite recovered.

The Rev. Theodore E. Dowling reports that the Sixth Annual Course of Public Lectures in Jerusalem is arranged for the forthcoming tourist season on Saturday evenings, as follows:—

On October 28th Baurath von Schick completed the fiftieth year of his residence in Jerusalem. The esteem in which he is universally held was shown by addresses of congratulation coming to him from various countries and by the degree of doctor philosophiæ et artium liberalium magister being conferred upon him honoris causâ by the University of Tübingen, which is in his native country. The Committee of the Fund sent a special letter to Dr. Schick expressing their cordial congratulations and high appreciation of the very valuable contributions which he has made to the knowledge of ancient and modern Jerusalem.

Dr. Schick reports that a new church is being erected on the site of "the original, or Byzantine, Church of St. Stephen," north of Damascus Gate (Quarterly Statement, 1890, p. 9).

He also mentions that "tradition places the house of Simon the Cyrenian in the Vin Dolorosa, the present Tarik el Seraï, called also Tarik 'Aloun," and that recently the lowest house of this street, where it enters a cross road, the corner house, having come into possession of the Franciscans, has been marked with an inscription, the arms of the Franciscans with the pierced hands, and to the right and left Jerusalem crosses, all cut in relief in new stones and put into the old wall. Veronica's house is 220 feet higher up the same street (towards the west) and on the same (the southern) side.

Attention is drawn in our present issue to the extremely interesting question of what really now exists in the Cave of Machpelah, below the floor of the existing Haram. The Rev. Canon Dalton, who, as governor of the sons of the Prince of Wales, had with them the rare privilege of entering and examining the interior of the mosque, has contributed some valuable and curious notes and suggestions in connection with the translation of David Reubeni's account of his visit to the same sanctuary in A.D. 1523.

Dr. Masterman, of Damascus, writes that the work of rebuilding the fine old mosque is now being pushed on with great energy. Seven or eight monolithic columns (quite new) with beautifully carved Corinthian capitals have been erected, and the bases of a good many more were already in position. The work is chiefly at the east end of the mosque, and apparently it is intended to do that before the west end.

The income of the Society, from September 21st to December 21st, 1896, was—from annual subscriptions and donations, including Local Societies, £1,004 9s. 5d.; from all sources—£1,378 16s. 6d. The expenditure during the same period was £1,233 11s. 6d. On December 21st the balance in the Bank was £293 4s. 3d.

Dr. Post's "Flora of Syria, Palestine, and Sinai," is now ready, and may be obtained on application to the author at Beirut. (See advertisement.)

The work embraces 126 orders, 850 genera, and 3,416 species, many of the latter, as well as numerous varieties, being new to science. It is illustrated by 445 woodcuts, and a coloured map, showing the botanical regions of the district covered. It contains a general analytical key to all the orders, and special keys to the larger tribes and genera. Much labour has been expended on these keys, and it is hoped that, by their means, the usefulness of the book will be greatly increased, especially for students and travellers.

His Grace the Archbishop of York has kindly accepted the office of President of the York branch of the Fund.

The following gentlemen have kindly consented to act as Honorary Local Secretaries:—

Henry J. Bailey, Esq., M.D., for Bishopstoke, Hants.

Rev. T. Forbes, for Bolton and Horwich, in place of Rev. S. Bond, resigned.

E. G. Treyer, Esq., has become Honorary Treasurer for Damascus and Beirut.

The first portion of M. Clermont-Ganneau's work, "Archæological Researches in Palestine," is now ready, and being sent to subscribers.

Memo. for Subscribers to the Survey of Palestine.—In the original programme it was intended that the "Archæological Researches" of M. Clermont-Ganneau should be published in one volume, but the work increased so much since its commencement that the Committee found it necessary to arrange for the publication of the whole in two volumes. Vol. II has been published in advance for the reasons stated in the prefatory note.

Vol. I, which treats of Jerusalem and its neighbourhood, is well forward, and, when ready, will be sent out to the first 250 Subscribers without any increase in their subscriptions for the full set.

There are only a few copies of the sets left at the price of £7 7s. When these have been cleared out the price will be raised to £12 12s. (See advertisement in fore-part of Journal.)

A third and revised edition of "Syrian Stone Lore," by Lieut.-Colonel Conder, R.E., is now ready.

An important work by Lieut.-Colonel Conder, R.E., entitled, "The Latin Kingdom of Jerusalem"—1099 to 1292 A.D.—and describing the condition of Palestine under the Crusaders, is now ready. It is based on the chronicles and contemporary accounts, both Christian and Moslem, and on the information collected during the progress of the Survey, with descriptions of the scenes of the important events, and other information not to be found in previous histories of the Crusades. The whole will form an octavo volume of about 400 pages, with two maps, giving the Crusading names and boundaries of the "Fiefs" throughout Palestine.

Boha ed Din's "Life of Salah ed Din," translated from the Arabic, is in the Press, and nearly ready for publication. It forms the concluding volume of the Palestine Pilgrims' Text Series of Translations.

A complete set of the Palestine Pilgrims' Text Translations in 12 volumes, with Index, bound in cloth; price, £10 10s. For contents of volumes, see end of Quarterly Statement.
